Cards were received yesterday by the friends of the bride announcing the marriage in Denver on Wednesday last of Miss Irma Watson, daughter of Mrs. Charles W. Watson, and James Harold Hance. The marriage was a quiet affair, the bride's mother going over from here for it. Mr. and Mrs. Hance left shortly after the east, and after November 15 they will be at the home of the bride in the city. The bride is one of the most talented pianists of the city, and she will be missed in local musical circles.

Mrs. Philip H. Hopkins was the hostess yesterday afternoon at a delightful tea at her home, when over a hundred of her friends were entertained. The home was bright with the season's flowers, various colors of carnations and roses decorating the parlor, while deep red dahlias were used in the dining room with red streamers and all accessories in red. Mrs. Hopkins's sister, Mrs. Lewis, received with her, and assisting in all the rooms were a number of her friends, Mrs. Leckhart, Mrs. W. E. Coulson and Mrs. George Jay Gibson. Mrs. H. Van der Lane and Mrs. Russell Tracy poured tea and coffee, relieved later by Mrs. Shumaker and Mrs. P. R. Ferguson. Mrs. Fred Knickerbocker served punch in the library, and a number of young girls, among them Miss Ferguson, Miss Riley and Miss Cobbe, assisted in the dining room.

A small but delightful affair of yesterday afternoon was the tea given by Mrs. Joseph Nibley and her sister, Mrs. Joseph Nibley, in compliment to Miss Sylvia Clayton, who leaves shortly for Europe. The guests, numbering about 500, were mainly the members of the sewing club to which the two hostesses belong. Assisting them were Mrs. Harold Peery of Ogden, Mrs. Margaret Taylor and Miss Winifred Burroughs. The home was bright with yellow chrysanthemums, whose color added to the warm sunlight which lighted the room.

Mrs. Edwin F. Holmes received her friends yesterday informally at her regular home, where she will be with callers all during the afternoon hours. During her stay in town, Mrs. Holmes will be at home every second Friday afternoon.

One of the large affairs of this afternoon is the tea to be given by Mrs. Aaron Keyser and Mrs. Malcolm Keyser at the home of the latter, 1104 East
